MAN CHARGED WITH DUI AFTER COLLISION

November 2, 2010

On November 2, 2010 at approximately 12:30 a.m. Bluffton Police responded to a traffic collision on Simmonsville Road.

The investigation into the incident revealed that a Ford pickup truck heading southbound from US Hwy 278 on Simmonsville Road struck a construction worker directing traffic and a stationary work light trailer. The pickup truck was driven by Randolph Wiggins who appeared to be under the influence of alcohol. The construction worker, George Rivers, was directing traffic for the roadway widening project of Simmonsville Road. Rivers had minor injuries and was transported to Coastal Carolina Hospital where he was released later that morning.

Wiggins was arrested for Driving Under the Influence and transported to the Beaufort County Detention Center to await a bond hearing.
